Created for simplicity

Tools like Photoshop & Illustrator require months of training before you can make a graphic that looks professional. With Piktochart, you can whip up a professional-looking design in less than an hour — No training or graphic design experience required. Our drag and drop editor helps you create infographics, brochures, or presentations in minutes, not hours.

Integrate into workflow

With Piktochart, you don't have to overhaul your entire workflow. Download your visual content in PNG and PDF formats and share them with your colleagues via email. You can also download your presentations as a PPT file and use presentation software like Powerpoint to present offline.
